

Rohit, Jadeja, Axar put India on driver’s seat

Hosts end day 2 on 321 for seven

Nagpur, Feb 11: Rohit Sharma's 120 and valiant fifties by Ravindra Jadeja and Axar Patel, helped India take a lead of 144 runs over Australia on a spinning and bouncing track at the Vidarbha Cricket Association here on Friday.

At the end of Day 2 of the first Test, India were 321 for 7 with Jadeja and Ashwin batting on 66 and 52, respectively.

Debutant Todd Murphy had a cracking beginning to his career as he bagged five wickets and pinned the hosts’ batsmen down in crucial stages of India’s innings. However, the hosts fought the odds out and stamped their their authority on the match.

The 81-run partnership for the 8th wicket squeezed out the enthusiasm of the Aussies towards the end of the day. Axar got to his second Test fifty and Jadeja his 18th.

Rohit scripted the turnaround as he dropped anchor to crack a classy century on a turning track.

For Australia, Murphy continued to impress as he prized out Ashwin, Cheteshwar Pujara and Virat Kohli in quick succession. Nathan Lyon crashed through Suryakumar’s gate, but Jadeja came in and dropped anchor to take over the baton from his captain.

Pat Cummins picked rhythm with the second new ball and sent Rohit’s off stump cartwheeling after a catch had gone begging in the slip in the same over.

At tea, India were 226/5 after a brief wobble from Murphy. The debutant spinner sent back Kohli who was caught on the legside by Alex Carey on the very first ball of the post-lunch session.

Suryakumar Yadav started his Test career with his trademark sweep shot for a boundary, but did not last long as he was cleaned up by Nathan Lyon, with India trailing by 8 runs and half of the side back in the pavilion.

Rohit got to his first century as a captain with a chip over cover off Murphy, helping India take the lead.

Jadeja lent good support to Rohit, who put away a few loose deliveries over the fence and had a close shave off Murphy as the TV umpire denied an LBW shout.

In the first session, India started the proceedings with overnight batsmen Rohit and Ravichandran Ashwin, who garnered useful runs early on. Despite Murphy struck twice in the first session, Rohit reduced the deficit to 26 runs with a classy unbeaten 85 runs at lunch.

India were then 151 for 3 with Kohli batting on 12, giving company to Rohit at the other end. Both overnight batsmen frustrated the Aussies. They made useful runs, but were fortunate to have got a few boundaries off outside edges. Soon the partnership reached 42 runs for the second wicket, that’s when Murphy managed to strike Ashwin on the front pad.

The on field umpire judged it not out, but Australia opted for the DRS which yielded the TV umpire’s decision in their favour after the nightwatchman had scored 23 runs. For Australia, Scott Boland and Murphy showed the way instead of senior players Pat Cummins and Nathan Lyon. The duo bowled in tandem and dried up runs for India, building pressure which resulted in Murphy breaking the overnight partnership.

The Train of Life..!

It was a 1947 steam engine. I looked at the pictures of it. It was going to do a heritage run and the whole city was excited last Sunday. Every station that the train passed was crowded with young and old. The old telling the young that the iron monster huffing and puffing away was once a part and parcel of their lives.

I myself remembered those journeys where at a curve one looked out of the window and saw the engine far, far ahead, pulling the train with a resolve and determination that was so very apparent.

One could actually see the wheels pushing forward like a giant horse hauling its responsibility along. It was as I saw the pictures of the black beauty and as my thoughts went back to another era that I remembered lines I had heard many years ago:

Some folks ride the train of life,

Looking out the rear,
Watching miles of life roll by, And marking every year.
They sit in sad remembrance, Of wasted days gone by,
And curse their life for what it was, And hang their head and cry.

But I don't concern myself with that, I took a different vent,
I look forward to what life holds, And not what has been spent.
So strap me to the engine, As securely as I can be,
I want to be out on the front, To see what I can see.
I want to feel the winds of change, Blowing in my face,
I want to see what life unfolds, As I move from place to place.
I want to see what's coming up, Not looking at the past,
Life's too short for yesterdays, It moves along too fast.

So if the ride gets bumpy, While you are looking back,
Go up front, and you may find, Your life has jumped the track.
It's alright to remember, That's part of history,
But up front's where it's happening, There's so much mystery.
The enjoyment of living, Is not where we have been,
It's looking ever forward, To another year and ten.
It's searching all the byways, Never should you refrain,
For if you want to live your life, You gotta drive the train.
Yes my friends, if you want to live your life fully, achieve your goals and reach the heights you have set for yourself then you need to drive your train, sit in the driving seat and chug, chug, chug your way along..!
