Kushbhoo resigns as NCW member

Chennai, Aug 15: In a sudden development, actress-politician and BJP member Kushbhoo Sundar on Wednesday resigned from her post as a member of the National Commission for Women (NCW). She was appointed to the post in February last year.

The popular actress said she had resigned the post as she could not get actively involved in day-to-day politics.

While pledging to continue to work for the BJP and Prime Minister Narendra Modi, she said she had resigned from the post of NCW Member after consulting BJP national president and Union Minister J P Nadda and Party National General Secretary BL Santosh.

Ms Kushboo said her resignation letter was sent to Rajneesh Mohan Singh, director, Union Ministry of Women and Child Development and it was accepted.

On rumours of she getting a new role in the party, the BJP National Executive Council special invitee said that she had not got any assurance in this regard from the party high command.

She also asserted she had decided to work actively in the party.

Vels Vidyashram sets record with 3,000 students creating reusable utility bags

Chennai, Aug 15: Vels Vidyashram Senior Secondary School in Pallavaram, Chennai, proudly announced a significant achievement as 3000 students successfully created reusable utility bags from paper and old clothes. This remarkable initiative, held at the school's premises on Darga Road, was aimed at setting new records with both the Asia Book of Records and the India Book of Records.

The event was graced by esteemed dignitaries, including C. Mageshwari, IPS, Additional Commissioner of Police, Tambaram City, and Samay Singh Meena, IPS, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Tambaram City. Their presence underscored the importance of the initiative and the school's commitment to sustainable practices.

The day's agenda went beyond just the creation of eco-friendly bags. The event also featured a critical awareness campaign addressing anti-drug sentiments and traffic safety. The students actively participated in these discussions, further emphasizing the school's dedication to fostering responsible and informed future citizens.

The reusable utility bags crafted during this event were distributed in the neighbourhood. This initiative serves as a testament to the students' creativity and environmental consciousness. By repurposing paper and old clothes, the students not only contributed to a greener planet but also showcased their ability to tackle pressing global issues through innovative solutions.

This milestone achievement is expected to make a significant impact, both in terms of environmental benefits and as a model of community engagement. The school's efforts have set a new benchmark for educational institutions and demonstrated how young minds can lead the way in sustainable practices.
