'2K Love Story': Talks about friendship, modern love

Director: Suseenthiran
Cast: Jagaveer, Meenakshi Govindharaj, Bala Saravanan, Antony Bhagyaraj, and Singam Puli.

2K Love Story centers around Karthik and Moni, childhood best friends who remain inseparable as they grow up. Their friendship becomes so iconic that they manage joint social media pages and even influence each other's major life choices. But when life throws unexpected challenges their way, their bond is put to the test.

Director Suseenthiran, known for his films that rarely focus on romance, insisted that 2K Love Story is not just another love story, despite its title. Set in modern times with contemporary slang and a narrative that explores the fine line between friendship and romance, the film attempts to bring a fresh perspective. However, in its effort to be unique, it unfortunately turns into a cringeworthy experience.

The movie revolves entirely around Karthik and Moni's deep friendship, to the extent that Moni makes crucial decisions for Karthik, who complies without question. While the film tries to explore the modern-day concept of "boy-girl besties," it ends up presenting a distorted version of friendship—one where control and excessive dependence are portrayed as signs of a close bond. Although the movie aims to be progressive by showcasing platonic friendships between opposite genders, it falls into problematic territory with outdated stereotypes, including a scene where homosexual women are insensitively referred to as "andha maari girls" as part of a misguided joke.

The film's narrative takes some bizarre turns, including Moni's parents insisting that her future husband must have a sibling who would marry Karthik, just so the best friends can stay connected. Even then, the primary concern is about finding a groom and bride from the same family despite caste differences—a subplot that feels outdated and forced. Throughout the story, the film confuses controlling behavior and unhealthy attachment for genuine friendship. Although it smartly avoids turning Karthik and Moni into a romantic couple, other questionable creative choices undermine the narrative.

Despite its attempt to present a modern take on friendship, 2K Love Story ends up being a misguided portrayal that leaves audiences uncomfortable rather than entertained.

Atharvaa's next with Dawn Pictures titled 'Idhaam Murali'

Dawn Pictures has officially revealed the title of its upcoming romance drama, Idhayam Murali, starring Atharvaa in the lead role. The film's title is a heartfelt tribute to Atharvaa's father, the late actor Murali, and his iconic 1991 movie Idhayam.

The announcement was accompanied by the release of the first-look poster and a title teaser, sparking excitement among fans. In addition to Atharvaa, the film boasts a stellar ensemble cast, including Kayadu, Thaman (marking his return to acting after Boys), Natty, Preity Mukundhan, Pragya, Angeline, and Yashashree. Popular YouTubers Sudhakar and Dravid from Parithabangal and content creator Niharika NM are also set to play significant roles.

Directed by Aakash Baskaran, with Senthilkumar Kesavan as the co-director, Idhayam Murali features dialogues penned by Dravid and Ramanagirivasan. Thaman is composing the music, with lyrics by Vivek. The film's visual storytelling is crafted by cinematographer Manoj Paramahamsa, while Pradeep E Ragav handles the editing.

Produced by Aakash Baskaran under the Dawn Pictures banner, Idhayam Murali adds to the studio's growing slate of projects, which includes Parasakthi, Idly Kadai, and STR:49. With its talented cast and crew, the movie promises to be a touching romance drama that pays homage to a beloved classic in Tamil cinema.
